

STREAM SURVEY

- Three 50 foot stream widths are measured along a 100 foot section of the stream
- At each 50 foot sections, ten stream depths with surveys rod are done (red dots represents sample points)
- Finally ten stream velocities are measured with flow meter (a ping pond and wrist watch with second hand will work also to measure velocity) at stream depths locations.

